

Pompeii

Italy

Pompeii is in southern Italy near the coast of The Bay of Naples.

Map of Italy

The Bay of Naples.

Pompeii has a subtropical climate. It has hot summers and cooler winters.

Pompeii was a busy Roman city until Mount Vesuvius erupted and buried it in 79 ad.

It erupted again 1913-1944 and is still considered to be active. It will erupt again.

Interesting Facts:

- Pompeii was founded in the 6th or 7th century BC by the Oscans
- In 79 AD it was destroyed by Mount Vesuvius
- It was conquered and became a Roman colony in 80 BC

What can you see?

The Stabian Baths

The Great Palestra

The Amphitheatre

The Forum

Accommodation

Candy Land Hotel

Rooms start from £100 per night, per person

Everything is candy and magical and it has a pool of marshmallows! The Candy Room Restaurant has the best Milk shakes and for breakfast you get Unicorn chicken nuggets.

The Birdhouse B&B

Rooms start from £50 per night, per person

The Birdhouse has lots of beautiful birds flying around. Each bedroom has a different bird theme. Breakfast is served in the Cuckoo Conservatory where you will get a nice view of the pretty birds.

The Mountain Camp

Rooms start from £10 per night, per person

Bring your own tent and sleep by Mount Vesuvius with your friends. There are nice toilets and showers. There is a nice café but you are welcome to have a BBQ.

Reviews

The Forum has a 4.5/5 rating

“One of the most intact of the free standing buildings at Pompeii, this plaza is the open meeting place for this ancient city and a must see part of any tour”

“Great glimpse into the past. I didn't realise how impressive the building must have been back in the day!”

Vesuvius National Park has a 4.5/5 rating

“We actually loved the experience.”

“You are at the top of the volcano! Fab views and an experience!”