

Saint George

Until the 14th century, Saint George was not the patron saint of England. You are going to imagine that you are a supporter of Saint George, who is writing to the committee that will decide if he can be made patron saint. You are writing to persuade them that Saint George is the right person to be named the nation's patron saint.

Remember to use the persuasive writing word mat to help you.

Your address:

Date:

Dear Sir/Madam,

My name is _____ and I am writing to you because _____

I feel that Saint George is the correct person to become patron saint of England because

In addition to this, Saint George also _____

Furthermore, _____

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter and _____

I think you will agree that _____ _____ and I look forward to hearing your decision.

Yours faithfully,

Saint George

Until the 14th century, Saint George was not the patron saint of England. You are going to imagine that you are a supporter of Saint George, who is writing to the committee that will decide if he can be made patron saint. You are writing to persuade them that Saint George is the right person to be named the nation's patron saint.

Remember to think about how to start and end your letter, and how to include persuasive language. If you need to, use the persuasive writing word mat to help.

Your address:

Date:

Introduction: Introduce yourself and explain why you are writing.

Paragraph 2: Explain the key reasons why you feel Saint George should be named as the patron saint of England. Think about his personality, achievements and how many other people feel about him, not just yourself.

Paragraph 3: Add any more details about Saint George's life and the nature of his legacy. Why does this make him the correct person to be patron saint?

Conclusion: Thank them for reading your letter and include a rhetorical question to make the reader think about what you have proposed.

Yours _____

Saint George

Until the 14th century, Saint George was not the patron saint of England. You are going to imagine that you are a supporter of Saint George, who is writing to the committee that will decide if he can be made patron saint. You are writing to persuade them that Saint George is the right person to be named the nation's patron saint.

Remember to think about how to start and end your letter. Make sure you set out your letter in the correct formal style and that you use persuasive language.

Introduction

Paragraph 2

Paragraph 3

Conclusion

Yours _____
