Making Equal Groups

Share these tasty treats between different numbers of people to make equal groups. Type your answers in the boxes and choose the correct symbol from the drop-down menu.

| For example: Share between 3.                                       | What does the calculation look like? |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| en der har en der har en der har har har har har har har har har ha | 3 ÷ 3 = 1                            |
| a. Share between 2.   | What does the calculation look like? |
|   |                                      |
| b. Share between 4.   | What does the calculation look like? |
|   |                                      |
|   |                                      |

Making Equal Groups

| d. Share between 5. | What does the calculation look like? |
|---------------------|--------------------------------------|
|                     |                                      |

| e. Share between 2. | What does the calculation look like? |
|---------------------|--------------------------------------|
|                     |                                      |

| f. Share between 4. | What does the calculation look like? |
|---------------------|--------------------------------------|
|                     |                                      |

You have 20 sweets. How many different ways can you put them into equal groups? Type in all the possible ways.

