Ways to learn	A	B	C
OUTDOOR LEARNING I enjoy hands on activities	Create a model of a Roman catapult using anything you can find outside.	Go for a walk in the woods or outside. How many different patterns can you spot? Draw 4 - You may want to do leaf or tree bark rubbings too.	Can you create a springtime picture using natural materials?
MATHS AND SCIENCE I enjoy working with numbers and science	Test of our knowledge of using directions to guide the angry bird through the maze. https://studio.code.org/hoc/1	Design a new snakes and ladders board with division questions that need answering on a lot of the squares. Bring it in so we can play it 😊	You will need 2 magnets and 2 paper clips for this activity. Draw yourself a race track on a piece of paper.
SHARED LEARNING I enjoy working with others	Dress up as someone from Roman times. Have your photo taken and write a caption to go with it.		Place the race track on top of the table, the paper clip on top and the magnet under the table. Race your partner! Use a stopwatch to record how long it took you to get round.
CREATIVE LEARNING I enjoy art and designing	Design a new Roman shield OR Create a 3D model of the colosseum.	Make a bird feeder and draw three birds that use it. There are some easy ideas here: https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/makes/bird-feeder	Produce 3 top trump cards for three important people in Roman history. Include a picture and 4 categories.
COMMUNICATION I enjoy reading, writing and speaking	Pretend you are a Roman soldier. Write a postcard home about a significant event in Roman history.	Go on a sensory walk with an adult. What can you see, hear and smell? Use your English targets to write about your walk.	Write an acrostic poem about a springtime work of your choice.
SPELLING, PUNCTUATION AND GRAMMAR I enjoy writing	We have looked at imperative verbs (bossy words) Can you name a body verb for every letter of the alphabet?	Write what your dream job would be. What would you do? Who would work with you? How much money would you earn?	Create a fact file about the artist Wassily Kandinsky.
